

Full Name	Mrs Angela Quinn
Bio	Angela is currently teaching music at St Joseph's Catholic High School in Albion Park. She has been involved with developing liturgical music both at her Parish in Kiama and within the school environment for over 30 years. Angela has a passion for choir music and recognises the importance it plays in enhancing the celebration and prayerfulness of the liturgy. She was involved in forming the choir for the World Youth Day 2008 celebrations in the Diocese of Wollongong, has developed choirs in both primary and secondary schools as well as her own choirs and vocal ensembles for gospel services and concerts within the community. Angela believes that music has the ability to encourage and transform people of all ages and hopes that she is able enthuse like minded people to educate students about the spiritual power of music in liturgy and prayer.
Title	An Educational Experience Integrating Year 7 and 8 Music with Religious Education.
Brief Description	An opportunity to look at the links between the topics taught in Year 7 and 8 Religion and supporting this within the music curriculum. Developing a music program where students can have the opportunity to learn to play and sing different styles of music that fit in to various forms of liturgical experiences.
Overview	The following links will be explored: Concepts of Music and Environmental Music-God and People in Creation. Psalms and Acclamations-Old Testament and Sacred Scriptures. Exploring Mantra, Hymns, Gregorian Chants, Praise and Thanksgiving songs-Ways People Pray and The Emmaus Story. Rock Music: Sending Forth songs-Living the Christian Life and Christian Ideals. Music of a Culture: African. Acclamations, Spirituals, Gospels and songs of hope and praise-The Influence of Jesus and The Bible: Sacred Scriptures. Australian Music: Looking at current influences on Australian Christian composers by exploring and performing Gathering Hymns-People and Ministries of the Church as well as School and Church Communities. There are various topics in music that offer the opportunity to educate the students about early forms of church music and current Christian music trends. It also allows students to develop a deeper understanding and knowledge of liturgy and prayer.
Type	Workshop
Audience	Teachers and Catechists
Breakout	A