

Full Name	Mrs Elizabeth Harrington
Bio	ELIZABETH HARRINGTON (BA, B Econ, Cert Teaching, Grad Dip Theol) has been the Education Officer at Liturgy Brisbane since 1995. This role involves conducting workshops in liturgy at diocesan, deanery and parish level, writing articles (including just over 700 "Liturgy Lines" columns for The Catholic Leader to date) and responding to requests for liturgical advice, information and resources. Elizabeth is a consultor to the National Liturgical Council, chairs the Archdiocesan Catechumenate Committee which has oversight of the RCIA in Brisbane and is secretary of the Archdiocesan Commission on the Liturgy.
Title	"The New Evangelisation: What's the RCIA got to do with it?"
Brief Description	Examines Vatican II's vision for initiating adults into the Catholic Church and how it applies to the Church today.
Overview	The New Evangelisation seeks to bring people to faith, but how do we bring them into the church? This session explores the vision expressed in the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy regarding adult initiation, the Rite that came out of this vision, the process that it proposes and the implementation of its principles. For everyone involved in Catechumenate ministry (RCIA coordinators & team members, sponsors, catechists, etc).
Type	Paper
Audience	Clergy; Lay Pastoral Ministers; Parish Liturgy Committees; RCIA / Sacraments of Initiation Ministers
Breakout	E