Title	How are you keeping Lent this year?
Brief Description	What happens when we encounter the Gospel images and symbols of Lent in the light of the southern seasons of the earth and the people with whom we celebrate?
Overview	The work of preparing the weekly Sunday celebration of the Eucharist is focused by the annual cycle of the liturgical calendar, which finds its origin in the Mediterranean and Europe. As we become more attentive to our local environment, the seasons and the people with whom we celebrate, new encounters emerge between the historical and natural symbols of our liturgies. These sacred encounters have the potential to renew our lives and our worship.
