

Full Name	Dr Paul Taylor
Bio	Dr Paul Taylor is Executive Secretary of the Bishops Commission for Liturgy and National Liturgical Council and Coordinator of Liturgy for the Archbishop's Office for Evangelisation in Melbourne. He is also an Assistant Organist at St Patrick's Cathedral In Melbourne.
Title	Liturgical Music for the Prayer of the Church
Brief Description	This workshop will revisit some of the core liturgical principles underpinning the Office and explore musical options for the psalms, canticles, hymns and various chants for Morning and Evening Prayer in the parish.
Overview	Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (1963) devoted one entire chapter to the Divine Office. In calling for a reform and renewal of the Church's traditions of daily prayer, the Council opened the door for the Liturgy of the Hours - particularly Morning and Evening Prayer - to become once more a responsibility of the baptised, in addition to priests and religious for whom it has been a daily duty for centuries.
